

OATH OF JURATS

You swear and promise on the Faith and oath which you owe to God, and at the peril and condemnation of your soul, and on the Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ which you touch with your right hand.

That well and faithfully you will exercise the office and charge of Jurat of the Royal Court of this Island of Guernsey;

That you will uphold the Glory of God, the honour of Our Sovereign Lady Elizabeth II, by the Grace of God Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of her other realms and territories, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith and Supreme Ruler of her countries and dominions;

That you will be a true and loyal subject of Her Majesty;

That you will duly uphold the constitution of this Island and will protect and maintain with all your power the laws, rights, customs and other legal procedures established in this Island;

That you will attend and help the Bailiff or his Lieutenant, together with your fellow Jurats, your fellows, in the Ordinary Courts according to your rota and in Extraordinary Courts, whenever you are required to do so, to dispense good and proper justice between Her Majesty and her subjects, and between party and party, equally to the humble and to the great, and especially to widows and orphans, showing favour to no-one;

That you will not preside over the sealing of any documents which are not in accordance with the law, and that you will provide a true narrative and record of all conveyances, bonds, judgments and decisions made when you are sitting;

And if it should happen that you fall into error, whether through ignorance or otherwise, you promise to correct your error and to align yourself with the best judgment of your fellows.

You promise accordingly

May God help you

God Save The Queen
